

Angora Boutique Report by Nichole Wilson

Before we know it ARBA Convention will be here! I have been working on expanding the “Angora Boutique” and bring some fun colors to promote our angora breeds and the club!

In the newsletter you will find the order form which includes all of the new articles we are now selling. I would like all order forms to be postmarked by September 1st so there is enough time to get the clothing made for convention. All the clothing will be embroidered except the Broken Angoras, Black Giant Angora and Convention Apparel, which will be screened. All orders will be available for pick up at the 2013 Convention in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. However, I will have a few garments for sale as well. New to the boutique are aprons that repel wool!

Alyssa Bowlby’s famous angora pins are now available in the boutique! In the order form please indicate what breed you are interested in.

When I have walked around the new breed and variety presentations around the ARBA Standards Committee table, I have seen many clubs make shirts to promote their presentation. I thought it would be a great idea for us to have some as well! The broken angora design is on a pink shirt. The front says Got Broken? And the back of the t-shirt has a design drawn by Alyssa with a broken black English and Satin Angoras. I also created a black Giant Angora shirt with the help of Alyssa and the Baileys. This shirt is a light green and says Beautiful Black Giant Angoras on the front around a drawing of a black Giant Angora. $2 from every sale of the broken and black angora apparel will go to the research and development fund.

Convention apparel is also included on the order form. This shirt will have 4 patriotic angoras in a diamond. The shirt color is tan with black writing.

In the boutique there is now youth and toddler apparel! They come in very fun colors. The adult section of the boutique also has some new fun colors along with the traditional gray. The lightweight pullovers have more of a fitted style. The windshirt is going to be the new grooming essential. The Upper Midwest Angora Club did these a few years ago and they work well. They fit comfortably over a sweatshirt and are loose in fitting.

Once I get my samples in, there will be pictures of everything on the website.

Hope to see you all at Convention!!
