

National Angora Rabbit Breeders Association

HALL OF FAME AWARD

The highest award in which NARBC can bestow is the Hall of Fame award. This award will be given to the member who has excelled as a breeder and contributor to the Angora fancy above and beyond expectations.

The National Angora Rabbit Breeders Association is not required to present this award each and every year.

The "Hall of Fame" award will be presented by the presiding President at the National Angora Rabbit Breeders Association banquet at the ARBA Convention. The name of the "Hall of Fame" winner will be announced in the following issue of the NARBC newsletter.

Purpose: To recognize and honor members, both living and deceased who have been of service to NARBC as well as representing our club in the public through promotion of the Angora breeds. This is a way of thanking them for their service.

Please fill out the application and return to the Chair Committee. Should you have any questions in regards to the application please contact the NARBC Hall of Fame Chairperson Sue Needle by mail: 73 Gowan Street, Barrie, Ontario, Canada L4N 2P1, or email sueneedle20@gmail.com

The nominee shall:

- has been an ARBA and NARBC member in good standing at one time for at least 5 consecutive years.
- have outstanding accomplishments in the Angora industry and has worked with other clubs/organizations in the advancement of the Angora rabbit, NARBC and/or Angora industry.
- have at one time been a member in a local, regional and/or the National Angora club.
- have helped organize and/or been an active participant in a NARBC National show and/or ARBA Convention.
- have demonstrated the ability to raise and exhibit animals successfully and competed in competitions such as 4H, non-ARBA and ARBA shows.
- have donated unselfishly of time, effort, or finances to benefit the Angora hobby. The nominee has educated others about Angoras and the Angora industry.
- have accomplishments which invoke recognition by the mention of his/her name.

The Hall of Fame Committee has been set up to bring forward names of those members and former members of the National Angora Rabbit Breeders Association that display the qualifications noted above. The names for consideration are to be submitted along with a letter of recommendation by any member to the Committee Chairperson. The Chairperson will send the letters to his/her committee for approval to ensure the criteria set forth is met. Once the Committee is in agreement, the Chairperson will forward an approval letter with copies of all documentation to the Clubs Secretary/Treasurer, at which time the Board will vote on the nominees by way of ballot. The votes shall be postmarked no later than September 1st and returned to the Chairperson. A 2/3 majority of the Board members approved is needed.

Name of Nominee: _____

Address: _____

Past or present member of ARBA member: Yes _____ No _____

Past or present member of NARBC member: Yes _____ No _____

*All of the following questions may not apply to this nominee. Answer only those that apply. Please answer them to the best of your ability and with as much detail as possible. Use separate sheets of paper as necessary.

List information pertaining to a local, regional and/or a National Angora club(s) in which the nominee is actively involved, offices held, accomplishments, and the effect this individual has had in the club.

List information pertaining to any outstanding accomplishments in the Angora industry and has worked with other clubs/organizations in the advancement of the Angora rabbit, NARBC and/or Angora industry.

List information pertaining to any donations of time, service, finances or other made by the nominee that were for the betterment of the Angora community.
